

Population Profile Summary Sheet

Review the population data you were able to gather on the community. Write a brief summary of the community highlighting its strengths and the areas of possible concern. In the summary consider these questions. Which indicators are different than the state average? Which indicators have changed over the past few years? Which indicators need more data or need to be investigated further?

Summary

Things We Still Need to Know: